APPEALING AND MINERAL DRY WHITE WINE

Bourgogne Côte Chalonnaise Chardonnay

TASTING NOTES

Visual: Pale golden colour, limpid, with silver glints.

Nose: A bouquet of flowers (acacia), citrus, and white-fleshed fruit (pear).

Palate: It is straightforward, rich and cheery in the mouth with an intense mineral finish.

WINE AND FOOD PAIRING

As an aperitif or to accompany dishes such as sushi, spring rolls, antipasti, tapas, seafood pasta, grilled fish, white meats or mild cheeses.

For family occasions we typically serve it with snails and new potatoes “in their jackets”.

Serving temperature: 10-12°C.

WINEMAKING AND MATURING

Grape variety: Chardonnay.

Vinification: Gentle pressing at low pressure to protect the quality of the juice.

Maturing: In temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks to preserve the fresh aromatic charm.

THE TERROIR

We find the Côte Chalonnaise in the very heart of Burgundy; the vineyards continue the natural line of the Côte de Nuits and the Côte de Beaune. Organised into small individual villages, this winegrowing region spreads over 60 kilometres in length and about 7 kilometres in breadth.

DID YOU KNOW?

The regional appellation “Bourgogne Côte Chalonnaise” brings together 44 different communes, it embodies both white wines made from Chardonnay and red wines from Pinot Noir. Criteria such as the yield, the minimum levels of alcohol and the methods of vine cultivation are governed by decrees issued by the Appellations d’Origines Contrôlées.
